

BOSTON CREATIVE GLASS WORKSHOP

FLAME WORKING

BEAD MAKING 101: MORETTI

ONE SATURDAY A MONTH FROM 9:00AM TO 2:00PM

In this introductory class, you will learn how to make beautiful glass beads on a mandrel. You will use soft glass, Moretti, to build these colorful glass pieces. After a discussion of studio set-up and safety, demonstrations will introduce students to the use of heat and gravity to shape molten glass. Demonstrations will alternate with working time. No experience necessary. Return students welcome. All materials included.

FLAME WORKING 101

ONE SATURDAY A MONTH FROM 9:00AM TO 2:00PM

This hands-on flame working course covers the basics of shaping colorful glass in the flame of a stationary propane/oxygen torch. There will be a discussion of studio set-up and safety, followed by periodic demonstrations and plenty of practice time. Throughout the day, we will create beads, glass pendants and marbles

FLAME WORKING: ANIMALS

ONE SUNDAY A MONTH FROM 2:00PM TO 7:00PM

Learn to sculpt a variety of animals with either Moretti or Borosilicate glass at a stationary bench torch. After a discussion of studio set-up and safety, demonstrations will introduce students to the use of heat and gravity to shape molten glass. Techniques for applying color and manipulating the form will be practiced. By the end of the class you will have created several pieces

FLAME WORKING: MARBLES

ONE SUNDAY A MONTH FROM 2:00PM TO 7:00PM

Using either Moretti or Borosilicate glass, we will learn how to make several styles of marbles, such as complex twists, raked designs, and paperweight-style encased flowers. We will also learn techniques for encasing marbles in clear for a magnifying effect, and make glass stands for you to proudly display your creations.

FLAME WORKING: PENDANTS

ONE SATURDAY A MONTH FROM 2:00PM TO 7:00PM

Using Borosilicate glass, students will learn to shape and mold a variety of objects, including flowers, at a stationary bench torch. Sculptures will then be cased in clear glass to produce a pendant. The instructor will demonstrate techniques and then assist as each student works.

BOSTON CREATIVE GLASS WORKSHOP

GLASSBLOWING

GLASS PAPERWEIGHTS I

ONE SATURDAY A MONTH FROM 2:00PM-6:00PM

The glass paperweight is the first step for anyone interested in working with hot glass. This introductory class guides the first time glass artist through the most crucial skills. First you will gather glass from the furnace, learn to shape and control, and how to apply color to the glass. In a fun and informative manner our instructors will introduce you to tools, safety and basic glass theory. Every student will leave with a gorgeous paperweight and a strong foundation for future exploration

GLASS FLOWERS

ONE SATURDAY A MONTH FROM 2:00PM-6:00PM

Give your sweetie a flower that will never wilt! During this workshop, you will learn basic glass blowing theory to produce brilliantly colorful glass flowers.
